Colored Dots

A special class of Young Farmers will be held at the Carver-Price High School next Wednesday, Feb. 5, at 7:30 P. M. in the Agricultural class room. Topics of special interest will be discussed. A special invitation is extended to all former members of the local veterans class.

The class will be conducted each Wednesday after the first and third Sunday in the month. R. Q. Lawing will conduct the class.

Impressive services were held at the First Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The Rev. Garland Thompson, of Lynchburg, was the guest minister.

A large crowd attended the regular preaching services at the Promise Land Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered a special sermon. The church choir rendered special music. The offering for the day was very good. A special after offering for the March of Dimes was also taken by the officers.

The local County Teachers Association will meet at the Carver-Price High School this Monday evening at 4 o'clock. Mr. E. T. Johnson, history teacher, will lead the discussion on Negro History.

Rev. R. Q. Lawing and Mrs. Theda Harris will attend the planning meeting of the V. T. A. local association officers in Richmond this Saturday at 10 A. M. They will help in planning the annual meeting of the state association.

We are happy to report that our local basketball team is improving nicely. They won over the Central High School of Charlotte Court House last Monday evening by eleven points. We are asking our parents to please come out to help our boys win the next games at home. Our next game here will be this Friday at 8 P. M., against the high school of Staunton, Va.

Plans are nearing completion for the annual N. F. A. basketball tournament of the Western Federation of N. F. A. C. The meet will be held in Bedford this year on Feb. 19.

Softball Trophies

At a dinner last evening held at, 7 o'clock at Maude's Restaurant, award trophies were presented to winners in last season's Appomattox Softball League.

Bobby Mitchell and Fred Lawson presided over the ceremony. The trophies were presented by Calvin Robinson on behalf of the league.

The large team trophy for the league championship was presented to the Simpson Team, and accepted by "Red" Harvey.

Best Sportsman Trophy went to Thomas E. Fitzgerald.

Henry Simmons won the trophy as the league's best pitcher.

Dan Coleman was awarded the trophy as Best Hitter.

The trophy as Best All Round Player went to Ed Cawthorne.

IN FASHION NOW

The lady of fashion will be all but showing her knees in a chemise and will hide her head in a deep crowned hat.

The new hats allow plenty of room in the crown to accomodate the popular puffy hairdos. Even head-binding turbans look like fat domes. Almost all the spring hats cover the head completely. Large picture hats have deep crowns. The designers, as a group, seem to be going along with the hairdressers and are designing around fluffed-out hair and bangs.

Many hats have a deep V notched in the middle of the forehead. Some of these hats are reversible, not to be worn inside out but to be worn with the V in the back or the front.

All hats are soft. Even the most severe of the lot will have a touch of softness about the face. There is much veiling but not of the face-camouflaging type.

Light make-up is the thing. Eyes will be round rather than doe-shaped. This is supposed to be accomplished by subtly, not dramatically, using eye shadow and mascara. This will be a change we are looking forward to. Women with heavy eye makeup always manage to look more like clowns than does, to us.

The chemise (or sack) has something called the belted look. The result is pleasing and becoming to full and slim shapes . Just a touch of the chemise look is incorporated into many summer and spring dresses with success.

The ingenue effect of polka dots and crisp linen is being a bit overdone by some designers.

Swirled and draped harem skirts give interest to cocktail and dinner dresses. Chiffon is a perfect fabric for this skirt and the designers are making full use of it.

FEED CONFERENCE

Roanoke, Va.- Dr. M. L. Scott, of Cornell University, one of America's most prominent men in the field of poultry nutrition, will be a featured speaker on the poultry section of the Virginia Feed-Nutrition Conference here at Hotel Roanoke February 25-26, according to Paul M. Reeves, of Virginia Polytechnic Institute, co-chairman of the event.

Dr. Scott, winner of the American Feed Manufacturers Association $1000 Nutrition Research Award in 1952, will make two appearances on the Tuesday afternoon program, February 26. His first talk, "Stress and Nutrition," will be presented at 2:00 P. M. The second, "Turkey Rations — All Mash vs. Grain and Mash," is scheduled at 3:30 P. M.
